But despite all these upgrades, a lot of people still prefer the older airpods versions or other Bluetooth devices to the new airpods pro. But are airpods pro worth it in 2022? Find out as you keep reading.

ARE AIRPODS PRO WORTH IT IN 2022?

Are airpods pro worth it? In this current era and time, everyone just wants something that makes life easier and simple for them. And that also includes Bluetooth earphone devices. Apple made sure to listen to the complaints and defects found in the regular airpods and implement these corrections in the airpods pro. With its top notch noise transparency and noise cancellation features, really good sound quality and its amazing design, anyone would say the airpods pro are worth it. But a lot of people believe that they can get the same quality from other brands of Bluetooth earphones for a cheaper price than the airpods pro.

ARE AIRPODS PRO WORTH IT FOR ANDROID?

Are airpods pro worth it for android? It all comes down to what you value in a Bluetooth earphone. If you are going for the premium sound quality, long connectivity range and the awesome noise cancellation feature, then you should go for it. But the thing about the airpods pro is, you can only access its settings through an Apple device. You will not be able to customise its buttons or change the name of the airpods pro while using an android device. A lot of other Bluetooth devices have all these features available and more but as it was earlier said, it all comes down to what you are looking for in your Bluetooth earphones.

ARE AIRPODS PRO WORTH IT IF YOU ALREADY HAVE AIRPODS?

Are airpods pro worth it if you already have airpods? If you already have airpods that you are comfortable with, then you may not need to get the new airpods pro, unless you are looking to explore, or your old airpods are not satisfactory enough for you. If you are looking to explore, you can get the new airpods pro and try them out, and if they do not work out for you and are not satisfactory enough or you prefer your old airpods, then you can easily have them returned within fourteen days and get your money back.

ARE REFURBISHED AIRPODS PRO WORTH IT?

People need to understand what the word "refurbished" means. When a customer returns a product and the manufacturing company rectifies the problem and puts it up for sale again, that is when you call the product refurbished. Retailers tend to use refurbished in the place of the word "used". The "refurbished" products most retailers sell have already been used by others and they resell them and call them refurbished. Some retailers actually sell refurbished airpods pro but how can you be so sure and know the difference? If you are getting your refurbished airpods pro from Apple, yes it is worth it as you get the exact same warranty as new ones. But if you are getting them from an untrustworthy seller, then you will be taking a risk. You will be left with the question of the durability of the product and there starts your test of endurance, perseverance and patience.

WHICH AIRPODS ARE BETTER? THE PRO OR REGULAR?

Many prefer the airpods pro to the regular and vice versa due to their personal experiences. You can decide which is better based on your own needs and these are the points to take into consideration when making this decision;

- The airpods pro have been proven to have better sound and call quality than the regular airpods.
- Siri actually works on the airpods pro and is always on and useful when your hands are busy.
- The noise cancellation and noise transparency features are better on the airpods pro compared to the regular airpods.
- The airpods pro has an IPX4 water and sweat resistant feature, which means you cannot swim with them, but they will do just fine in the rain.
- The airpods pro are a stronger and better fit and are less dangly for most compared to the regular airpods. They are also much more comfortable.
- The airpods pro detects your device quickly and you can easily switch between your multiple devices, compared to the regular airpods.
- Your airpods pro may develop a crackling sound after a few months of usage, but you can easily get a replacement directly from Apple.
- Your music/ video audio pauses whenever you take the airpods pro out from your ears, unlike the regular airpods where your audio continues playing even when your airpods are not in your ears.
- The airpods pro are quite expensive compared to the regular airpods.
- The battery life does not last as long as is expected of the airpods pro.

DO AIRPODS PRO FALL OUT?

The airpods pro do fall out for most people, due to the problem of wrong ear tip sizes. The airpods pro come along with three different sizes of ear tips, the small, medium and large. If none of them fit you, you can go to an Apple store for a fitting, use memory foam tips or get a different size at a regular earphone vendors shop. Or if none of these work for you, you can just send them back to Apple and they will send you a replacement.

DO AIRPODS PRO HURT YOUR EARS?

Airpods pro ear tips can sometimes hurt your ears. This could be due to a too large ear tip, or a silicon allergy. If the silicon ear tip is causing your ear to hurt, you should check for a silicon allergy and maybe switch to memory foam tips instead.
